Application for an Order Allowing Repairs of Defendant Vessel F/V Palau Maru No. 1
Shell Guam, Inc. v. F/V Palau Maru No. 1 and RRG International, Inc.
District Court of Guam Civil Case No. CIV03-00029

As Defendant Vessel has been under arrest for an extended period of time, certain repairs to Defendant Vessel are necessary. Such repairs are to be accomplished by two employees of RRG International, Inc., former Plaintiff-in-Intervention. The custodian of Defendant Vessel agrees that such repairs can and should be made.

Defendant Vessel is currently, and will continue to be, insured through the United States Marshal Service.

I am informed that the United States Marshal Service is amenable to such repairs being made and notice of this application is being served with the United States Marshal Service contemporaneously with its filing.

Dated this 27th day of May 2004.
